

ROALD DAHL Complete with prepositions as interactive worksheet

Roald Dahl, who died ____ 1990, is still one ____ the world's best-selling authors. His short stories ____ adults are known ____ their unexpected endings. Alfred Hitchcock's movie Man from the South was based ____ a story written ____ Dahl. However, Roald Dahl is probably most famous ____ the dark humour ____ his popular children's stories, such as Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Fantastic Mr Fox. Roald Dahl was a very organised man. He always worked for two hours: ____ 10 until 12 in the morning and ____ 4 to 6 in the afternoon. He always wrote ____ pencil and when he started writing ____ the day, he insisted ____ having a few sharp pencils in a box ____ his side. Dahl enjoyed writing for children. He said that children's jokes still made him laugh . This was also the reason ____ his great success.

