

STORYTELLING

1- Arrange the pictures to create a story.

2- Now, read the original story and put the pictures in the right order.

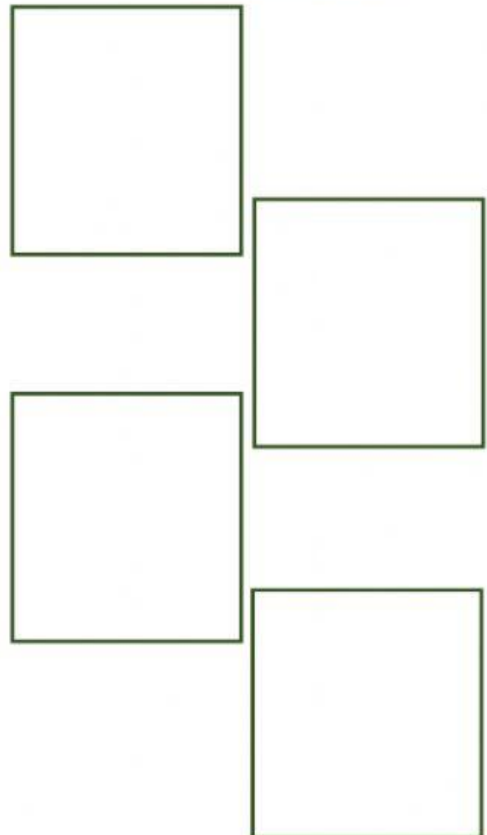

This is a story about a poor and little boy named Jack. Jack's mother asks him to sell the cow, but Jack instead of selling it, he exchanges the cow for magical beans.

When the mother sees that Jack didn't sell the cow, she gets angry. She sends Jack to sleep and throws the beans away. Jack goes to his room really sad.

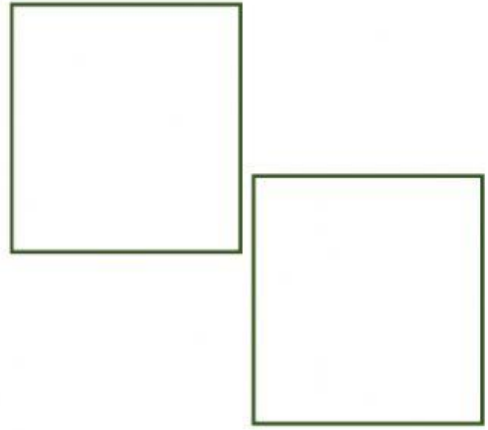

The next morning, when Jack wakes up, he sees that in the place of the beans now there is a really big plant passing the clouds.

Jack climbs and climbs past the clouds. Up there, he discovers a castle.

Jack gets into the castle and finds a lot a tresures.
But in the castle lived a giant. When the giant sees
Jack with the tresures, he starts following him.

Jack scapes the giant. He goes down and down the plant. When he is finally at home, he cuts down the plant so the giant won't come and get Jack. Now, Jack and his mother live happy ever after.

3- Answer the questions.

- A Was your story different from the original? Which one do like better?
- B What part of the original story do you like the most?
- C Would you climb a magical plant?