

Conduct a little interview session with any your family members. Ask them to describe their interests with suitable adjectives. Fill in the answers in the provided spaces.

What are your hobbies?

What talents or skills do you have?

What do you like to do most during the weekends?

What is something that you like to do in leisure time?

What is something that you feel passionate about in life?