

Listen carefully to the story.

Now answer the questions orally based on what you remember from the story.

1. What colour were the zebras long, long ago?

A solid orange rectangular box, likely a placeholder for the student's oral answer to the first question.

2. Mr and Mrs Zebra wanted to look special for the party. What did they do to themselves?

A solid orange rectangular box, likely a placeholder for the student's oral answer to the second question.

3. How did the other animals at the party respond to Mr and Mrs Zebra?

A solid orange rectangular box, likely a placeholder for the student's oral answer to the third question.

4. What did the other zebra do?

A solid orange rectangular box, likely a placeholder for the student's oral answer to the fourth question.

5. Could the zebras wash off the stripes? Why?

A solid orange rectangular box, likely a placeholder for the student's oral answer to the fifth question.

6. What conclusion can you draw from this story?

A solid orange rectangular box, likely a placeholder for the student's oral answer to the sixth question.