

Phrasal Verbs

UNIT 6: CRIME

50 phrasal verbs

verb + preposition = phrasal verb

look	up	"Let's look up the meaning in the dictionary."
------	----	---

look up - phrasal verb - to look for information in a dictionary or reference book, or by using a computer

WorldEnglish808.com

a-z

Vocabulary 2

Phrasal Verbs

1 Circle the correct words to complete the sentences.

- Someone broke out / broke into our house at the weekend and stole all our electronic goods.
- Your son lies, steals and is always in trouble. I don't know how you put him away / put up with him.
- The police caught the mugger, but he got away / got away with while they were taking him to the station.
- There have been burglaries in the area recently, so lock up / lock in your valuables if you're going away.
- This bloodstained shirt ties up / ties in with the murder. We can use it as evidence.
- We know you're in there, Bugsy! Give back / Give up now before you get hurt.

2 Now match the phrasal verbs you didn't use in 1 with the meanings below and then write a sentence using each one in your notebook.

- _____ : do something bad without being punished for it
- _____ : return something to someone
- _____ : put someone in a place that they can't get out of
- _____ : escape from prison
- _____ : put rope, etc around someone so they can't move
- _____ : send someone to prison