

Declarative, Imperative, Interrogative, or Exclamatory?

Write whether the sentence is declarative, imperative, interrogative, or exclamatory.

(Write D for Declarative, IN for Interrogative, IM for Imperative and E for Exclamatory sentences in the box provided)

- 1) We decided to climb the tall tree.
- 2) What is wrong with Mrs. Stewart?
- 3) Are you sure that you want to spend your money on that toy?
- 4) That was so exciting!
- 5) Leave my sister alone!
- 6) Pick some fresh flowers for the vase.
- 7) Put on your boots before you go out in the rain.
- 8) Dad had to nail the boards together to make a box.
- 9) My grandmother will slowly regain her health after the surgery.
- 10) Do you know how to fix this oven?
- 11) You drive me crazy!
- 12) What will you gain by winning all the awards if you lose all your friends?

- 13) Jennifer and Luis are giving cookies to the children.
- 14) Jackson was hired at the grocery store in June.