

Francisco is a teen chef from Spain. He loves cooking and trying new ingredients every week. He has a part-time job at Leonardo's, a prestigious Spanish restaurant. Francisco works there every afternoon from Tuesday to Saturday.

"Customers usually order healthy meals for lunch; Salads are healthier than fries; so, we make a lot of different salads every morning. Our green salad is more delicious when we add lettuce from the orchard", Francisco says.

In the afternoon, Leonardo's is always full of people. Francisco makes chocolate cakes, pancakes, coffee and orange juice. Most people prefer a piece of chocolate cake because it's tastier than pancakes; but pancakes are bigger; so Francisco sometimes makes more than 3 big chocolate cakes, and about 10 pancake towers. Customers love having a snack at Leonardo's.

Answer the following questions about the text:

- When does Francisco work at Leonardo's?
- What do people usually order for lunch?
- What does Francisco make in the afternoon?
- What's tastier than pancakes?