

B1 Reading Part 2: Summer Camps

Part 2 has five short descriptions of people and eight short texts to read. You have to match each person to a text. This part of the examination assesses your ability to read a lot of short texts to find specific information.

Some teenagers want to go on a summer adventure camp to improve their English and do something new. Below are some of the places they can go to. Decide which would be the most suitable for each teenager. For questions, 1-5, choose the correct letter (A-H).

- A. The Lakeside Summer Camp is a summer school with a difference. You sleep in special waterproof tents near the lake. Daily lessons in English, French or Spanish, and then you are free to go on hiking trails with our experienced guides, or to the local stables for pony trekking across the hills.
- B. Great Lake Sports and Adventure Camp is a great way to learn English without the usual classroom hours. All activities are in English. Plenty of variety with outdoor activities, and our great lakeside setting is perfect for our full watersport programme. We cater for special diets.
- C. Cambridge Activity College is in the English countryside. This is an activity/English centre where the emphasis is on exam preparation for students aged 12-18. After your 3-hour exam timetable, you choose between horse riding, cycling, walking or tennis. For over 16s there is a special 'be free' programme, allowing trips to London and or the seaside. Courses from 2-10 weeks.
- D. The Valley Activity Summer Camp. While we offer accommodation, many of our students choose the option of living out, with local families. Great exam preparation classes, taking into account your special needs. We also offer the best climbing walls in England and sports facilities include a pool and tennis courts. Excursions over the weekends are included in the booking fee.
- E. Beach Activity Camp is a great way to spend summer days with the added bonus of no formal English classes. All learning takes place by doing activities. It's the perfect place for tennis and football fans. Plenty of chances to get out into nearby Margate with its lively cafes and its great beach.
- F. Language and Activity Cabin Camp for boys is a great way to enjoy the freedom of nature whilst improving your language skills. Accommodation is in cosy cabins. Daily activities include mountain biking, hiking across the local hills and swimming in our lake. Languages (English, French and German) and classes are held 3 days a week.

G. Happy City Summer Camp for girls is a great place for girls to improve their English while learning new activities, like dance, cooking and painting. There are also sailing lessons on our very own lake! The camp is in the grounds of an animal sanctuary just North of London. London shopping trips are standard, so don't forget to bring some spending money.

H. The Sanctuary. Students can choose to care for one animal for their complete stay, which may be from one week to eight! Students choose how they want to learn English, and there are opportunities for private lessons with our experienced tutors. Lots of chances to see England Special diets provided for and choices of single or double rooms.
