

Read these texts about Sarah's and David's interests and answer the questions. Try to write long sentences.

Reading

SARAH
I'm interested in sport, especially football. I'm a Manchester City fan and I've got photos and posters of the team.
My friend Lily and I like manga comics. Lily has got books about manga, and she's very good at art. One of my interests is photography. I haven't got a very good camera, but my photos are really good.

DAVID
I'm into skateboarding and martial arts and I've got a green belt in taekwondo. We've got a computer at home, but I'm not mad about computer games. I prefer chatting on the internet when I've got time.
I like books, especially books about animals. I really like animals, but we haven't got a pet.

1. What are Sarah's interests?

2. What has Lily got?

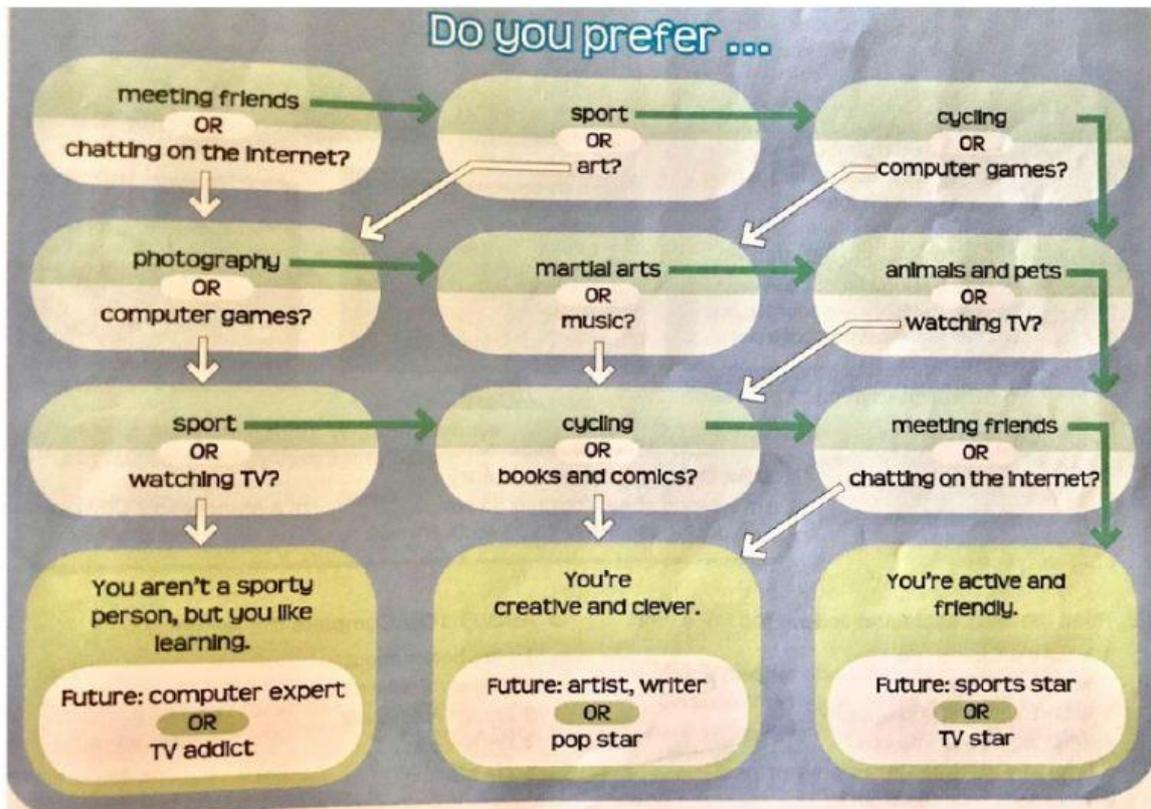

3. Is Sarah good at photography?

4. What are David's interests?

5. Is he very interested in computer games?

6. What books has David got?

What are your interests? Answer the questions and follow the arrows:

What result did you get? First, second or third? Do you agree or disagree?

Now it's your turn! Tell me everything you want about yourself (what's your aspect, things you like, what you don't like, what you want to be in the future, how's your family...). You can use sentences such as I like books/movies about..., One of my interests is..., I'm good at..., or I'm a fan for example.
