For questions 1-3, type your final answer in simplest form in the box.

1. $2\frac{1}{2} \times 3 =$

2. $\frac{3}{4} \times 4\frac{1}{2} =$

3. $1\frac{2}{3} \times 5\frac{5}{6} =$

4. Jane planned to interview some people for a job opening. She scheduled a meeting every $1\frac{5}{6}$ hours. How many hours will it take to interview 5 people?

   Fill in the first box with the math operation needed to answer this problem. In the second box, fill in the problem changed into improper fraction form. In the third box, fill in the answer with a label.

   $1\frac{5}{6}$ 6 =   =