

ACTIVITY 1: Read the following sentences and put them in the right column.

Things he CAN do	Things he CAN'T do
He can't walk or jump.
He definitely can play tennis.
Gustavo can't reach the upper shelves.
He can cook,
He can do the laundry
He can also throw away the rubbish.

ACTIVITY 2: Read the following article and complete the text with the corresponding connector (AND- BUT- OR).

FROM SELLER IN A BUS TO GOAL SCORER

This is Maximiliano Espinillo. He is from Córdoba, _____ he lives in Santa Fe. When was a child he had a virus that left him blind. He can see shadows and lights, _____ he can't see colours _____ figures. Maxi used to sell sweets such as chocolate, sandwich biscuits and candies on buses, in Córdoba. Now, he is the goal scorer in the Argentinian's blind football team. Espinillo and his family have to learn how to live their lives with his blindness. His father, Antonio, adapted a ball with stones inside so Maximiliano could play football with his brother _____ cousins. It is incredible how this person, who can only distinguish day and night, can be the best football player in a tournament in Japan. Maxi does not forget about his past. He remembers when he was a child, it was difficult to be blind because there were a lot of things he could not do. _____, he claims that he is in this place thanks to the challenges he had to face since he was a little boy.

WINTERFELL ENGLISH HOUSE
TEACHER: JESICA TORRES