A. Read the passage given carefully. Drag the sentence in the boxes and drop them onto the correct blanks.

The buffalo was happy to stay in the cave because it was big and warm. One day, the buffalo met a fox outside the cave. The fox said angrily, 'How dare you stay in my cave? Don't you know I am the King of the Animals?'

'Ha! Ha! You are liar. Everyone knows who the King of the Animals is. You cannot fool me,' answered the buffalo.

the King of the Animals	met the fox outside the cave
The buffalo was	Yes, it / he did.

1. Who was happy to stay in the cave?

   _____ happy to stay in the cave.

2. Where did the buffalo meet the fox?

   The buffalo _____.

3. What did the fox call himself?

   The fox called himself _____.

4. Did the fox talk to the buffalo angrily?

   _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. Use the notes to complete Lynn's holiday activities in the space below:

went fishing	went to her grandparents' house
watched ducks swim	fed the chickens	to pick
took pictures	was a fun	the chicken eggs

Last holidays, Lynn 1._____.
She learnt a lot from her grandparents. In the morning, she 2._____with grains and rice. After that, she collected 3._____.

In the afternoon, she 4._____in the pond. She also 5._____of them swimming in the pond. In the evening, she helped her aunt 6._____ vegetables. They took the vegetables to sell at the market.

During the weekends, she 7._____with her cousins on the riverbank behind their farm. It 8._____ holiday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS