C1.1 Prefixes and Suffixes Word formations

1. In spite of the divorce, there was no ..... between them. (awkward)

2. Her casual clothes were ..... for such a formal occasion. (appropriate)

3. We'll ..... your absence this time, but don't let it happen again. (look)

4. They work with highly ..... liquids such a petrol. (flame)

5. We were waiting ..... for the show to begin. (patience)

6. There are several ..... from school this week because a lot of people have the flu. (absence)

7. It would be ..... not to feel concerned for your children's future. (nature)

8. The terrorists were killed when their bomb detonated ..... (expect)

9. These tests are beyond the ..... of an average fifteen-year-old. (capable)

10. She was very ..... by being told she had little chance of being promoted. (motivation)

11. She has always been in the honor roll. She has ..... everyone in her class. (do)

12. After being ridiculed by her boss on a daily basis, her ..... to change jobs was apparent by her résumé submissions to many local companies. (ready)

13. She criticizes what she sees as ..... treatment of overweight people. (discriminate)

LIVEWORKSHEETS