Phrasal Verbs

1. Never mind that you didn't win a gold medal in the Olympics. Just _____ trying your best! (continue)
2. Do you have a good relationship with your mother-in-law? Yes, we _____ very well.
3. What about your father-in-law? Well, we don't _____ so well.
4. Why not? Well, he can be quite difficult and obnoxious, and he is not very reliable. You can't _____ him to keep his promises. (rely on or trust)
5. What a shame! What happened? Well, my husband wanted to (start or establish) a business with him and he was all keen – but then the whole deal _____ . (collapsed)
6. So what happens now? We are looking for another business partner. It is too good an opportunity to just _____ . (put in the rubbish bin)
7. Well, I wish you luck. And whatever happens, don't _____ . (quit) If at first you don't succeed, Try, try and try again!
8. While we are talking, can I ask you to do a survey for me? Sure! What do you want me to do? You just need to _____ this form. (answer questions on a form)
9. Oh _____ (wait). My phone is ringing. Let me answer it! Hello? Yes? Yes? Wonderful! Thank you.
10. Well, guess what! You know that job I applied for? Well, I got it! Wonderful! What job is that? Well, I will be _____ (taking care of) an old lady with Alzheimers.
11. Alzheimers? That is quite hectic. How will you _____ that? (cope with)
12. It won't be easy and will _____ most of my mornings, (make use of a certain amount of time) but I need the money!
13. What's the time? Goodness! I must fly! I have to _____ my son from school (fetch)
14. Hey! Don't forget my survey form! Okay! I will _____ it _____ from you later! (collect)

hold on

throw away

carry on

set up

get on

get on

give up

deal with

pick up

looking after

fill in

count on

pick up

take up

fell through

LIVEWORKSHEETS