

Pedro lives in a small village in the mountains. Put a cross next to the sentences which are true about Pedro.

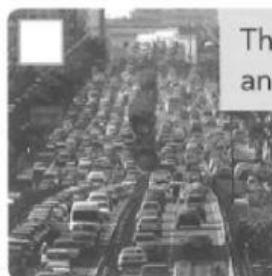

He lives in a flat in a tall building.

He uses the metro to move around the village.

He has electricity, a phone and Internet connection in his house.

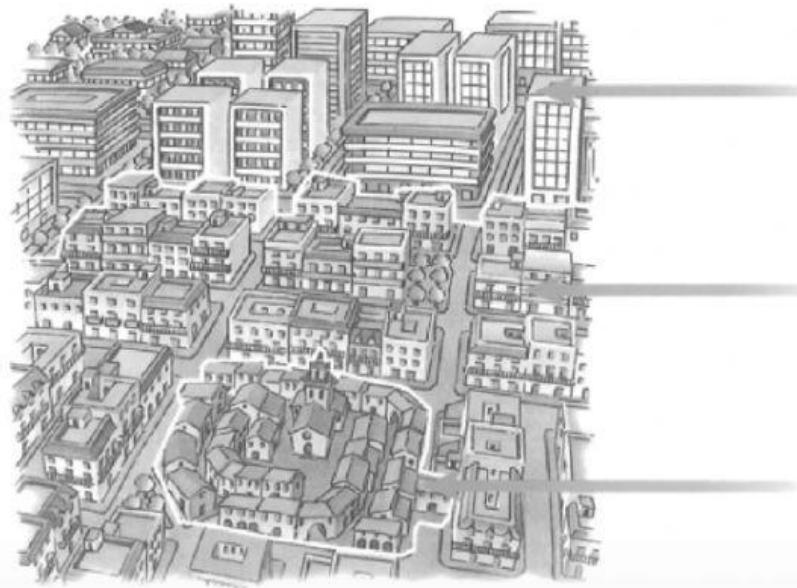

There is a lot of traffic and noise.

If he has to go to hospital, he has to travel to the city.

Look at this picture of a city. Draw lines in different colours to show the different parts of the city. Then write the names in the boxes.

the city centre • the newer part • the outskirts

the city centre

the newer part

the outskirts

Complete the sentences about villages and cities:

- People in cities mainly work in and
- Cities have three parts: the city, the newer part and the
- People in cities live in different
- People in villages often work in or in
- People who live and work in cities need different
- The most important services in cities are centres, services such as schools and universities, health services such as and clinics, and cultural services such as and museums.
- There is more traffic in than in
- There is more public transport in