

Harry Potter Phrasal Verbs Exercises / BLOCK 1

Ex. 1 / Fill in the blanks with appropriate phrasal verbs from the box.

1. He felt as though he were the floor.
2. "I won't hope, then," said Uncle Vernon nastily.
3. He was sure he had just Snape's memories.
4. "....., Hagrid, tell us what you've been up to!" said Ron.
5. "..... him," said Hagrid croakily. "After I'm gone."
6. They and dressed; they could hear various inhabitants of the house calling "Merry Christmas" to each other.
7. Sirius didn't have his mirror on him when he the archway, said a small voice in Harry's head.
8. "You will write me an essay on the correct composition of this potion, indicating how and why you went wrong, to be next lesson, do you understand?"
9. The only light in the square curtained windows and the sickle moon overhead.
10. "Come on, the quicker we the bus the better," said Tonks.

got up	came from	falling through	get on	went through broken into	look after	handed in	give up	come on

Ex. 2 / Fill in the blanks with appropriate phrasal verbs from the box.

1. He his glasses and cleaned them slowly on his robes.
2. "He to kill you when you were still a baby."
3. He turned again to lit windows down by the forest, but there was definitely no sign of life within Hagrid's cabin.
4. Hermione looked rather anxious, but before she could say anything, Ron said happily, "I bet Dumbledore this evening to celebrate with us, you know."
5. The sky still appeared unable to whether it wanted to rain or not.
6. Harry his pajamas, took off his glasses, and climbed into his chilly bed.

7. "How come I the snake's eyes if it's Voldemort's thoughts I'm sharing?"
8. "And I've always thought Fred and I should've got E in everything just by for the exams."
9. Don't ... your wand ... , boy, don't I keep telling you I'm no use?
10. ".....!" said Neville, horrified, staring at the Death Eater's head in the bell jar.

make up its mind	put ... away	look for	put on	set out turning up	turns up	took off	look out	saw through

Ex. 3 / Fill in the blanks with appropriate phrasal verbs from the box.

1. But Dumbledore so quickly that Harry jumped, and addressed one of the old portraits hanging very near the ceiling.
2. Bill his wand, muttered "Evanesco!" and the scrolls vanished.
3. "He's not very definite on anything, is he?" said Ron in a low voice, as they the fire.
4. He didn't have the power to the stars.
5. Ron kept throwing him anxious glances, but Harry pulled out his Potions book and work to finish his essay.
6. "Does he think he'll a crazy if he stays in a room with me too long?" asked Harry loudly.
7. Some people were singing, though Harry could not the words.
8. He closed his eyes and ... his face ... into the horse's silky mane.
9. "Those two dementors are still there," said George, "and we haven't how to get rid of them yet."
10. "I'm not sure I did myself justice on Cheering Charms, I just of time."

turn into	took out	put down	put out	worked out
set to	ran out	stood up	make out	turn off

Ex. 4 / Fill in the blanks with appropriate phrasal verbs from the box.

1. They at a station in the very heart of London, swept from the train in a tide of men and women carrying briefcases.
2. "I had the trap I had predicted, that I had told myself I could avoid, that I must avoid."
3. Then he undressed and got into bed, wishing his headache would

4. She , looking rather confused, and an awkward silence fell between them.
5. "Come on, let's breakfast and see what the others think."
6. "There, there, Sibyll. Blow your nose on this.
... It's not as bad as you think, now. ... You are not going to have to leave Hogwarts. ..."
7. He was so used to them doing this by now that he didn't even his chair.
8. "Oh Hagrid, why did you ... him ... if he didn't want to come?"
9. Dean bed, rolled over, and fell silent.
10. "A hand grabbed the scruff of Harry's neck and forced him down on the floor as a second silver flash"

get down to fallen into bring ... back got off fall off broke off got into calm down went off go away

Ex. 5 / Fill in the blanks with appropriate phrasal verbs from the box.

1. "If I jus' knew someone was tryin' ter help him a bit ... teachin' him, yeh know ..."
2. "We're a bit early, but I think you'll be better off there than here."
3. "I don't know," said Ginny, "but we'd better of the way, we're blocking the door."
4. And his reward was to be stuck in Little Whinging for four solid weeks, completely from the magical world.
5. "I went to McGonagall and I think she might have appealed to Dumbledore — anyway, Umbridge had to
6. The hat became motionless once more; applause , though it was weird, for the first time in Harry's memory.
7. Whenever he was in company he wanted to , and whenever he was alone he wanted company.
8. "I it all because — because help came at the right time!"
9. She folded back page ten of the newspaper and ... it ... to Harry and Ron.
10. "..... it," groaned Ron. "You want us to do extra work?"

get away hanging around broke out come off get out carryin' on handed ... back give in cut off got through box.

Ex. 6 / Fill in the blanks with appropriate phrasal verbs from the

1. "Give the essays to me, I'll them and correct them," she said.
2. "And what's going to happen if Arthur and I get killed, who's g-g-going to Ron and Ginny?"
3. Dumbledore was speaking was breaking up as students ... their heads ... , whispering and giggling.
4. "..... your papers," said Professor Marchbanks from the front of the Hall, flicking over the giant hourglass.
5. Everybody else spent the following morning Christmas decorations.
6. Dumbledore his wand, gave it a little flick, and an armchair appeared out of nowhere next to Harry.
7. Harry glanced at Ron and Hermione, who sighed but nodded, and the three of them after Hagrid.
8. In the meantime, he had nothing to but another restless, disturbed night.
9. Fred reached out for the parchment and cheerfully his signature.
10. The magical eye could walls, doors, and the back of Moody's own head.

took out	look after	put down	turn over	look forward to put together	see through	putting up	look through	set off

Ex. 7 / Fill in the blanks with appropriate phrasal verbs from the box.

1. "Snape — Snape p-persuaded Sirius of staying in the house — he Sirius was a coward —"
2. "Who wants to see me Snivelly's pants?"
3. They collected balls from the cupboard in the changing room and work.
4. Ron emerged from the trapdoor, looked around carefully, noticed Harry and ... directly ... him.
5. Many students ran out into the entrance hall to watch her down the path.
6. Harry his plate and wondered whether he could follow her without attracting attention.
7. Harry had opened his mouth to ask how much farther they had to go when Hagrid his right arm to signal that they should stop.
8. ".....," said Angelina, "we need to make sure this doesn't clash with our Quidditch practice."

9. "Have you any idea what the Ministry would that information?"

10. "Well, he to be a maniac, didn't he?" said Dean Thomas hotly.

threw out	made ... for	take off	turned out	set to running away	hang on	made out	set down	make of