

071

Listen to a librarian talking to a group of students.

If you girls do not stop talking to each other, you will have to leave the library. [REDACTED] for students to study. I don't mind if you talk about school a little bit but you are all being too loud. If you keep talking to each other, I will have to ask you to go somewhere else to talk.

---

072

Listen to a French teacher talking to a class.

We are going to have a new rule for class [REDACTED]. You are only allowed to speak French in class. You can say whatever you want in French. I want you all to have more practice speaking French because I think [REDACTED]. Okay, no more English.

---

073

Listen to a teacher talking to a group of students.

Okay, everyone. Today we leave for Niagara Falls. This is a big trip and I expect you to all respect your fellow students and your teachers. Just remember: [REDACTED]. Be respectful of everyone on the trip. Be nice to everyone and don't be rude. If you aren't respectful, there will be consequences.

---

074

Listen to a football coach talking to his team.

This is the biggest game of the year. I want everyone to work as hard as they can. I know some of you are hurt. I know some of you are tired. I know some of you have a lot of hard classes. But all of you need to forget about everything and [REDACTED].

---

075

Listen to a history teacher talking to her class.

Okay everyone, listen to me. Next week, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]. It is going to be hard, so you all need to study a lot this week. I will be in the library after school if you want to study with me. I will be happy to help because the test is going to be very hard. Good luck.

076

Listen to a math teacher talking to his class.

I am going to write a math problem on the board. If anyone can tell me the answer by next week, you will win a prize. It is very hard. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. I hope you try and solve the problem. It is a challenge but I would be very proud if anyone solves it.