WILL OR BE GOING TO

WILL	BE GOING TO
To talk about the future To make predictions about the future To make spontaneous decisions (while we are speaking) To make offers and promises	To talk about a plan, or intention in the near future To talk about permanent states or long-term plans To make predictions (with strong evidence)

Complete with the correct form of will or be going to. Use contractions with will.

1. ___ you ____ __ go out tonight?
2. A I ___ drive you to your home if you like.

   B No thanks, I___ call a taxi.
3. I ____ be late for the meeting. I promise.
4. We ___ ____ __fly from Boston to Mexico city.
5. I think I___ have fish and chips please.
6. Dan __ ____ __ look for a job in a restaurant this summer.
7. Hopefully, Sheila __ ____ __ finish university next year.
8. A Let's invite your mom for lunch tomorrow.

   B Ok, I___call her to see if she's free.
9. My uncle ____ be 50 in November
10. A The phone is ringing but...

    B No worries, I___ answer for you
11. Calm down! Based on its body language, the dog _____ bite you.
12. You know she hates onions, she _____ eat that soup.
13. What ___ you ____ __ do next weekend?
14. Probably, you ____ win the school elections.
15. That box looks heavy, I___carry that for you.