

I. Match the two parts of the sentences. Then complete the sentences with will or won't.

- |  |                                |
|--|--------------------------------|
| 1. Don't eat so many cakes. – You      | A. .... have a snack.          |
| 2. I'm really hungry. – I think I      | B. .... be cold there.         |
| 3. Eat lots of salads. – They          | C. .... make you fat.          |
| 4. The sun's shining and it definitely | D. .... rain today.            |
| 5. I don't think people                | E. .... have a lemonade.       |
| 6. Take a warm pullover; it            | F. .... get fat.               |
| 7. I'm thirsty so I think I            | G. .... ever live on the moon. |

II. Complete the sentences using the correct form of future simple or be going to.

1. .... (you/ feed) the cat for me, please?
2. I ..... (get up) early tomorrow. I want to catch the bus first.
3. Give me my money or I ..... (call) the police!
4. Dad ..... (paint) the kitchen next week.
5. I don't think he ..... (pass) the test.
6. They ..... (visit) their cousins in London next month.
7. The twins ..... (have) a party on their birthday.
8. I ..... (do) the shopping for you, don't worry.

III. Complete the conversation. Use the verbs in the box with will or going to.

answer	look	wait	phone	rain	show	spend
--------	------	------	-------	------	------	-------

Anna: Have you got any plans for the weekend?

Zack: Not really. I (1)..... until my sister arrives. I'm not sure what she wants to do.

Anna: She (2)..... the weekend here, isn't she?

Zack: Yes. She (3)..... me all her holiday photos.

Anna: Well, if the weather's good tomorrow, you can go for a nice walk.

Zack: Yes, but look at those dark clouds. It (4)..... tonight.

Anna: Maybe. I (5)..... on the Internet and see what they say about tomorrow's weather. Oh, what's that noise?

Zack: I think there's someone at the door.

Anna: I (6)..... it. It's a letter for you. What is it?

Zack: Oh, it's our concert tickets. Max's ticket is here as well. I (7)..... him now and tell him.