

English Department
Teacher: Andrea Rivera

Liceo Bicentenario de Música Hugo Garrido Gaete

"Educar a través de la música para el desarrollo integral de los estudiantes"

WORKSHEET 2 EDUCATION AND LIFELONG LEARNING

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____ 2021

Objective:

To contrast information in short written texts related to the educational area to find explanations to the ads.
To repeat words using the "tr and dr" sounds in a tongue twister.

Key vocabulary:

Trip:

In advance:

Require:

Hand in:

Arrangement:

Unless:

Notes:

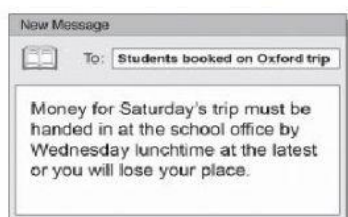

Last term's work:

Allow:

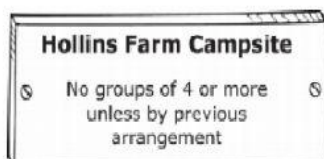

Provide:

Train:

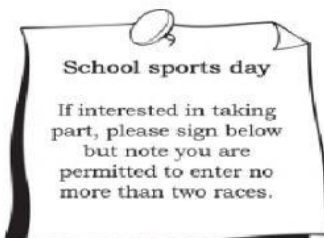

Read the ads and choose the correct alternative.

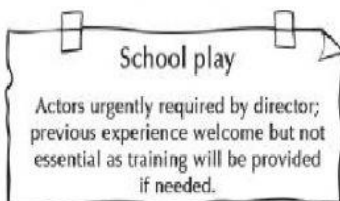

- a) Those who don't pay punctually won't be able to go to Oxford.
- b) There are very few places left on the Oxford trip.
- c) This is the last chance for students to register for the Oxford trip.

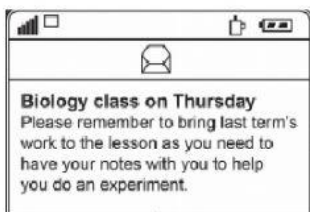

- a) All campers must reserve a place in advance.
- b) Groups bigger than four are not allowed on this site.
- c) Groups of more than three should contact the campsite before arriving.

- a) You must have signed permission to take part in sports day.
- b) You have to limit the number of sports day races you take part in.
- c) You need to write your name here to get more information about sports day.

- a) It is essential to have more actors even if they haven't acted before.
- b) It is important for all actors to have training before being involved in the play.
- c) It is necessary to find a new director to train the actors.

- a) Students must write detailed notes on this week's experiment.
- b) Students should check that their last term's work was done accurately.
- c) Students need to look at previous work while doing an experiment.

Taken from <https://www.cambridgeenglish.org/>

Read the tongue twister and repeat the pronunciation to improve.

I go on a train
and what do I see?
I see a dragon in a dress
and a dragon with a drum.
A dragon with a trumpet
and a dragon in a tree.

