

| Affirmative                       |                                   |                        |                      |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------|----------------------|
| I / You                           | have to                           |                        | go.                  |
| <sup>1</sup> He / She / It | has <sup>2</sup> _____            |                        | go.                  |
| We / You / They                   | <sup>3</sup> _____ to             | <sup>4</sup> _____.    |                      |
| Negative                          |                                   |                        |                      |
| I / You                           | don't <sup>5</sup> _____ to       |                        | go.                  |
| He / <sup>6</sup> _____ / It      | <sup>7</sup> _____ have to        |                        | go.                  |
| We / You /<sup>8</sup> _____  | <sup>9</sup> _____                | <sup>10</sup> _____.   |                      |
| Questions                         |                                   |                        |                      |
| Do                                | I / you                           | <sup>11</sup> _____ to | go?                  |
| <sup>12</sup> _____               | he / she / it                     | have to                | <sup>13</sup> _____? |
| Why do                            | we / you /<sup>14</sup> _____ | <sup>15</sup> _____    | go?                  |

Now choose the correct words to complete the rules.

- We use have to to describe ability / obligation.
- We use don't have to to express no obligation / prohibition.
- Have to* goes after / before the main verb in the sentence.
- The main verb is always in the infinitive form / infinitive without to.