

Present Continuous Tense

Affirmative (+)

We use “be + v.ing”

I am sleeping.
He is cooking.
She is running
It is eating.
You are talking.
We are singing.
They are walking.

Negative (-)

We use “be + not + V.ing”

I am not sleeping.
He is not cooking.
She is not running
It is not eating.
You are not talking.
We are not singing.
They are not walking.

Question (?)

We use “be” followed by
“Pronoun or Subject”

Am I sleeping?
Is he cooking?
Is she running
Is it eating?
Are you talking?
Are we singing?
Are they walking?

1. Fill in the blanks with “is/am/are+V.ing” and match them to the pictures:

- 1) She _____ (buy) new dresses.
- 2) We _____ (drive) a motorcycle.
- 3) I _____ (eat) sushi.
- 4) They _____ (play) the slider.
- 5) Piggy _____ (dance) with friends.

2. Negative form. Fill in the blanks with “is/am/are+ not + V.ing”:

- 1) Minny _____ (drink) coffee.
- 2) We _____ (watch) TV.
- 3) I _____ (walk) to school.
- 4) They _____ (eat) pizza.
- 5) She _____ (listen) to music.

3. Make a question. Fill in the blank with “be + V.ing”:

- 1) _____ I _____ (draw) the picture?
- 2) _____ we _____ (cook) dinner?
- 3) _____ Bob _____ (go) to school?
- 4) _____ he _____ (wash) dishes?
- 5) _____ you _____ (teach) English?

