

WRITING TASK

CLOSE UP TEXTBOOK PAGE 93

Your English teacher has asked you to write a story. Your story must begin with this sentence.

Nobody knew where they were.

(100 words)

Use useful expressions to create suspense:

At that point, During the minutes/hours/days that followed, Without thinking, There was no sign of, To make things worse, They were just about to give up when,....

..... Everybody looked scared. So,

..... , they knew they only had each other.,

Mahmud knew the first thing he must do was to find a shelter, a safe place from any hungry animals. His friends were counting on him.

So, all of them started walking on further into the woods. It was difficult to know where they were going as the track seemed to be endless. There was Then, Mahmud that would save them.

....., when they were walking slowly, they noticed a wolf followed them. The wolf's blood red eyes indicated that it was extremely in hunger. Mahmud told his friends to keep walking and be silence. Everybody tried to keep calm., there was no sign of the wolf. It was a!

They kept on walking till they reached a cabin. Mahmud knocked the door. No one answered. Mahmud knocked again. Mahmud looked at his best friends' face. Everybody looked exhausted. They were just about to give up. a young lady stepped out. Mahmud explained their situation. The lady called 999 for help., everybody cried in joy. A rescue van arrived within 20 minutes. The journey home was enjoyable with a nice long nap.

All of a sudden	thought of a plan	big relief!
To make things worse	from that time on	Suddenly,
no sign of rescue team	At that point
During the next minute	Nobody knew where they were.	