

Grammar possessive 's

PRONUNCIATION same or similar sounding words?

1 Look at the 's in each sentence. Write P next to the sentences with a possessive 's.

- 1 Carlo's restaurant is in Alnwick.  P
- 2 Margot's a teacher.
- 3 Our daughter's name is Miriam.
- 4 His wife's from Jamaica.
- 5 This book's my English dictionary.
- 6 The park is near my uncle's house.
- 7 Where's your friend from?
- 8 I'm Emily's grandmother.

2 Look at the photo and complete the sentences about Sancho and his family.

- 1 Alfredo and Maria are  Sancho's  parents.
- 2 Ana is Alfredo and              daughter-in-law.
- 3 Manuel is              brother.
- 4 Maria's              name is Sancho.
- 5 Isabel and Manuel's              name is Alfredo.
- 6 Manuel's              name is Ana.
- 7 Isabel and Manuel are Ana and              children.

3a Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box.

are he's his our 's (x2) their they're your you're

- 1 My wife and I  are  from Egypt.              first language is Arabic.
- 2 Our neighbours are very nice.              from India.              names are Sanjay and Mira.
- 3 Jean-Paul is from France.              a restaurant owner.              wife, Annie, is a teacher.
- 4 Hi.              the new student. What's              name?
- 5 Angela              parents are doctors. Angela              a doctor, too.

3b 1.5 Listen. Pause the listening and repeat after each sentence. Pay attention to the pronunciation of the words in each of the gaps.

4 1.6 Listen and look at the bold words/phrases in each pair of sentences. Which two words/phrases do not have the same pronunciation?    

- 1 They're Greek. Their car is German.
- 2 Henry's at home. Henry's wife is at work.
- 3 We are late. Our train is at nine o'clock.
- 4 He's married. His wife's name is Eleanor.
- 5 You're late. Where's your homework?

