LESSON: 2
TOPIC: Use of Possessive case of Nouns (– 's or –s')
TASK: 3 of 3

1. Look through the sentences and mark those which have a mistake in them:

1) Lots of people love Dickens' novels.
2) Last night performance was a complete failure.
3) The companie's profits are better at present.
4) This is the man's whom she promised to be always true to the briefcase.
5) The prime ministers' election will be difficult.
6) Don't ever do that for heaven's sake!
7) The tourists are invited on a three-days safari tour.
8) When she became famous, she achieved her life's ambition.
9) The brim of my hat is extremely dirty.
10) This is the city's first theatre.
11) The video player's remote control is broken.
12) Nobody listened to governor's-general speech.
13) The boys and the girls' rooms are downstairs.
14) This house's walls are very old.
15) The government's intervention didn't make much difference.
16) They couldn't hear each others' words in the noise around.
17) The rays of the sun are necessary for life.
18) His dogs' tail was badly hurt in the accident.
19) It all happened at the water's edge.
20) The nature is celebrating the springs' coming.
21) I really need at least a twenty-minutes nap.
22) Next week's party will be indoors.
23) He finds Euripides' plays quite boring.
24) Have you heard of Pam's and Michael's holiday?

LIVEWORKSHEETS