DAY OF THE DEAD

In other countries, they have different festivals. One of the weirdest festivals in the world is Day of the Dead. Day of the Dead is celebrated on November 1st in Mexico, Ecuador and other parts of Central and South America. Families gather to pray to dead relatives and ask them to return for just one night. People decorate their houses and grave sites with food, candles, and candy skulls... to welcome the dead back to earth. People dress up as skeletons and parade through the streets. Day of the Dead sounds like a scary event but it's a happy time to celebrate and remember the lives of dead family members.

My exciting weekend

My name is Jack. Last weekend was exciting! On Saturday morning, I went on a picnic with my family. We had sandwiches and juice for lunch. In the afternoon, my brothers and I played in a soccer game. We were happy because our team won. After that, I went shopping with my mom. I bought new glasses and some balloons. Next morning, I woke up early and got exercises with my cousins. I texted my friends and we all went to a movie in the afternoon. After dinner, I didn't watch TV with my parents. I did my homework and went to bed early. I love my weekend!

Questions:

1. How was Jack's weekend?

2. What did he do on Saturday morning?

3. Why was his team happy after playing in a soccer game?

4. Did he watch TV on Sunday evening?
