

DISTANCING subject + passive verb + to + infinitive/past infinitive

1. We expect that the rate of inflation will rise.

The rate of inflation _____

2. People think that she died in a plane crash.

She _____

3. It is reported that the mayor flew to New Mexico yesterday.

The mayor _____

4. It is expected that the economy will grow over the next six months.

The economy _____

5. People suspect he earns millions of euros a year.

He _____

6. People fear that the manager has refused the union trade's offer.

The manager _____

7. They say he has fled the country.

He _____

8. They expect that Barça will win at least one title this year.

Barça _____

UNREAL USES OF PAST TENSES

1. It's about time you (go) to bed.

2. He behaves as if he (be) the Emperor.

3. If only I (have) more money.

4. If I (know) earlier, I would have sent you an urgent message.

5. It's time you (wash) those trousers.

6. It's time she (stop) waiting for him.

7. I wish I (know) his address.

8. I wish I (speak) German.

9. I'd rather she (stay) with Monica
10. My back is really sore. I'd rather(lie) down on the couch
12. She has a hangover. She'd rather (not, party) tonight.
13. I'm not an active person. I'd rather (play) video games than workout.