

COMPARISONS

Task: Fill the sentences below with the comparative or superlative form of the adjective in brackets. Then match to the pictures. There is one picture that has no matching sentence.

1. The painter is just _____ his friend. (selfish)
2. Ben is _____ of the family. (hungry)
3. The criminal is _____ than Al Capone. (dangerous)
4. I'm getting my lungs checked to make sure they are _____ they should be. (healthy)
5. David's new haircut is _____ than the previous one. (trendy)
6. Craig's new haircut is not _____ the previous one. (trendy)
7. Mary is _____ at playing cards than the rest of the company. (good)
8. Pam enjoys reading _____ than her siblings. (much)
9. The man is _____ than ever because he made his fortune. (happy)
10. Tom hates doing homework just _____ he hates washing the dishes. (much)
11. Cameron is _____ than a credit card. (skinny)
12. Jim wants to be _____ chessplayer in the world when he grows up. (good)
13. Columbo had _____ car in town. (old)
14. The kids spend _____ watching TV than sleeping. (long)
15. My dad, who is an architect, earns _____ in my family. (much)
16. The pizza delivery guy was _____ always. (fast)
17. Grandpa is _____ about reading than grandma, who prefers knitting to reading. (enthusiastic)
18. This summer has been _____ than the previous one. (rainy)
19. The new waitress is _____ than the old one. (pretty)
20. These days monks are _____ to the outside world than in the old days. (connected)
21. I do hiking _____ than my friends. (often)
22. My room is going to look much _____ in green than the previous white. (nice)
23. Peter is not nearly _____ Picasso. (talented)

