The definite article: "the"

Check ✓ the options that are correct.

We use the ...

- to refer to something which has already been mentioned.
- when you assume there is just one of something in that place, even if it has not been mentioned before.
- with most names of towns, streets, stations and airports.
- in sentences or clauses where you define or identify a particular person or object.
- with uncountable nouns.
- to refer to people or objects that are unique.
- before superlatives and ordinal numbers.
- with the names of languages.
- with professions
- countries that include the words republic, kingdom, or states in their names.

Choose the correct option.

My sister often travels to Meet you on

She likes eating

My parents like you bake.

Susan goes to school by

Ian plays

This is you fail an exam.

is in front of restaurant.

Dolphins are regarded as creatures in the sea.

Adachi lives in

Laura is studying

LIVEWORKSHEETS