

SUPERSTITIONS AROUND THE WORLD

Lucky charms

1. Watch the video and answer the questions

- a. Elephants are seen as a sign of _____ and are associated with _____ and _____. People use their statues for _____ and _____.
- b. The Dreamcatchers represent _____ and they trap _____.
- c. Laughing Buddha, people believe that this image attract _____ and result in _____ and _____.
- d. Maneki-neko is also known as the _____ is found in stores and business, symbolizes _____ and _____.
- e. Evil eye is a _____ or _____ charm. It is associated with _____.
- f. The number seven is correlated with ideas of _____.
- g. Coins are being associated with _____ and wealth. It is supposing that different coins have powers to the owners, if you have a coin in your pocket, guarantees you'll never be _____.

h. The horseshoe has a supernatural power that _____ that any _____ near.

i. The rabbit's foot represents good luck in North America and must be _____ in the left pocket.

j. These are considered lucky charms too: _____, _____ and cat's eye.

k. Four-leaf clover should be taken as _____ of _____ to come and symbolizes _____, _____, love and _____.

2. Answer the question (personal opinion)

Do you think you're lucky?

Are you superstitious?

Do we make our own luck, or is it by effort or by accident?