

2 Complete the sentences with a verb from the box.

blew froze rained shone snowed

- The ground was wet after it rained during the night.
- The high winds _____ down one of the trees in my garden.
- They went skiing after it _____.
- We had a great day at the beach – the sun _____ all day.
- The rainwater _____ and turned to ice.

3 Look at the UK weather map and circle the best words to complete the weather forecast.

UK weather forecast for today

In Scotland, temperatures went down to minus 6°C last night. There is a lot of ¹ice / cloud on the roads today and you can see some ²snow / thunder on the mountains.

Northern Ireland and the north of England are going to have more ³ice / rain.

In Wales, it's a good idea to stay indoors today because there's a very big ⁴storm / fog with lots of thunder and lightning and very high ⁵winds / rain.

The east of England is dry, but it is difficult to see in some places because there is heavy ⁶sun / fog.

There are some ⁷clouds / rain in the south of England, but it is warm and sunny and there is more ⁸sun / lightning to come later.

1 Match the weather words in the box to photos a–c.

cloudy dry foggy freezing icy rainy snowy sunny warm wet windy

foggy

