- A: So, what were you saying about Pinkman lifting the trophy?
B: What a disappointment! He's never played like this before. He let down all his fans.
A: I've never seen such a terrible match in my whole life. What a shame!
B: I know. How embarrassing! He won the first game with those aces. How did he manage to lose?
A: Pinkman was playing so badly after the first game that I was glad when the match was over. What a waste of time and money!
B: You can say that again!

- A: Phew, we made it to our seats just in time.
B: Yeah, look at how many people have turned out. Andy Pinkman has so many fans!
A: Well, who wants to miss out on such an important match?
B: Not me. I'm so excited! I can't wait for the match to begin.
A: There he is! Let's cheer him on! Andy! Andy! Yeah!

- A: Did you see that? What a player!
B: Unbelievable! Another ace! That was such a fast serve that Wilson didn't have time to react.
A: Pinkman is so talented! Another point. That was so amazing!
B: Wilson's in serious trouble now.
A: There's another big serve from Pinkman. He's playing so well! One more point and that's the first game.
B: It's over. That was brilliant! What a game!
