teenagers

I looked at you like the stars that

In the sky, the pretty lights

And our daddies used to joke about the two of us

Growing up and falling in love and our mamas smiled

And rolled their eyes and said oh my my my

Take me back to the house in the backyard tree you'd beat me up, you were bigger than me

You never did, you never did

Take me back when our world was one block wide

I dared you to kiss me and ran when you

Just two kids, you and I

Oh my my my my

Well, I was sixteen when suddenly

I wasn't that little girl you used to see

But your eyes still shined like pretty lights

And our daddies used to joke about the two of us

They never we'd really fall in love

And our mamas smiled and rolled their eyes

And said oh my my my

Take me back to the creek beds we up

Two A.M. riding in your truck and all I need is you next to me

Take me back to the time we our very first fight

The slamming of doors instead of kissing goodnight

You stayed outside 'till the morning light

Oh my my my my

A few years had gone and come around

We were sitting at our favorite spot in town

And you looked at me, down on one knee

Take me back to the time when we walked down the aisle
