Listen to the interview again and re-write the questions

Stuart	... And we are delighted to have in the studio tonight the legendary, the lovely, the Oscar winning Macy Matthews!! Macy, welcome to the show.
Macy	Thanks Stuart. It's great to be back in the UK again.
Stuart	Now, I don't know how you do it, you've adopted two little girls, you've just done a film, you've got another one coming out, which you can tell us about later. But first of all, a few personal questions about yourself. We all know you are marvellous at doing all sorts of accents, but (1) Where did you grow up?
Macy	Well, it's a bit complicated because I was born in Melbourne, then my family moved to Sydney, but we used to spend a lot of time in LA and London, you know, because of being in movies.
Stuart	Oh!! A citizen of the world! And (2) How old were you when you first started acting? _____. Were you, like, a tiny baby?
Macy	Not exactly. It was just before my 6th birthday. I remember it quite clearly. My mom said, "Would you like I special birthday surprise?" and it was my first film role-I was so excited! Both of my parents worked in the film industry, so it seemed a natural thing to do at the time.
Stuart	(3) What it was like being a child film star? _____
Macy	Well, it was hard in that I had to grow up quickly and didn't do the things normally kids usually get to do. And of course, people used to compare me to my father all the time.
Stuart	Well, you do look a lot like him, don't you? I think it's the nose, isn't it? No, but seriously, (4) Why do you think your last film got bad reviews? _____
Macy	Mmmm ... frankly, I never look at bad reviews. I listen to my family and fans- they're my best critics. Film critics are very jealous people in my opinion.
Stuart	Oh, that's what I always say, ignore the critics!! Now, come on, (5) What are you working on at the moment? _____
Macy	I've just finished filming a romantic comedy with... Adrien Brody and no, there wasn't any romance on or off set.
Stuart	Pity! (6) What's your next project going to be? _____
Macy	It's called Work your heart out . It's all about the life-work balance. I'm going to be playing a single mother who has to bring up four children on her own while running her own business. And then she meets this man, but I'm not going to tell you anymore!
Stuart	Well, we will just have to go and see the film want we? Macy, we asked the audience to email their questions and about 99% of your fans would really like to know... (7) What is your house like? _____
Macy	Well, it's not a typical celebrity house, you know, it's completely ecological and has solar panels an all that
Stuart	I bet it has! Finally, (8) Is it true that you're moving in with Jhonny Depp? _____. I mean, that's what all the papers are saying!!
Macy	Ahhh... no comment
Stuart	it's true, it's true!!!
Macy	Let's just say it's early days yet
Stuart	OK, OK, I won't push you on it. It's been fantastic talking to you. Let's hear it for Macy Matthews!! Now, don't go away. But if you just move over on the sofa a little bit, we can make room for our next guest this evening.

read the interview with DJ Luca Richie and complete the questions. juice different type of questions where appropriate

Interviewer	Could you tell me how you first got interested in dance music?
DJ Luca	It was in a small island in the Gulf of Naples, where I grew up and where I live now. I started going out on Sunday afternoons to small clubs, spending time looking at DJ's, watching them as they were working.
Interviewer	... no doubt influenced you when you were younger?
DJ Luca	I guess many things: nature, animals, theatre and the arts. But also cinema, sports and music in general. From classics to pop and disco classics.
Interviewer	... musical instruments?
DJ Luca	Jazz, the guitar. My grandfather bought me one when I was 9.
Interviewer	Exactly. First start to DJ?
DJ Luca	At private parties at my friends' houses.
Interviewer	Your first DJ gig?
DJ Luca	Jess, I remember it really well. It was at my friend's house, I was spinning tape cassettes. It was hard to get professional turntables and mixers so I managed to mix from this big radio/cassette player. I also have my own lights and mirror balls.
Interviewer	How would you describe your sound?
DJ Luca	I'd say it's dance music with feelings.
Interviewer	If you could remix one track, which one would you do?
DJ Luca	John Lennon's 'Imagine'.
Interviewer	Of all the clubs you have played, which ones?
DJ Luca	New York, a club in Zurich, a bar in Portugal, and a beach party in Singapore. To me, it's not only the venue that makes it a favourite. Most of all, it's the crowd and the energy in the room.
Interviewer	Good. Do you mind telling us how important music is for you?
DJ Luca	Music is an art form for me, music for body and mind. Music is freedom!!
