Circle True or False.

Aiman was sad. His parents were upset. He just found out he did poorly in the examination. Aiman had always got good marks before.

In the past months, Aiman often skipped school to play computer games. He would play all day during the weekends. He always pretend to have a stomach ache and headache to skip school. As a result he missed many days of school.

His father told him to change his bad habit. Then, he stopped playing computer games and studied hard. For the March test, he did very well. His parents were happy. Aiman learnt his lesson.
