Answer the following questions.

PROFESSOR POTTS

Professor Potts, an inventor,
Lived in a large lonely house,
No one called to see him,

The old man invented all day,
In an attic on the top floor,
Books piled up to the ceiling,
Gadgets piled up to the door,

Professor Potts, an inventor,
Sit by the window each night,
Look up to the sky in wonder,
Stare at the stars shining bright,

Marvin peer at the telescope,
Wishing he was a spacemouse,
But he knew there's no hope.
