

☺ Read about Charlie and answer the questions.

Charlie is a clown. He works in a circus that travels all over Europe. Although he works from Monday to Sunday, he also has time to have a rest.

Yesterday it was Sunday. He got up at half past six in the morning. He had a shower and he had breakfast at his caravan. He had three scrambled eggs, bacon and orange juice. Then, at quarter to eight, he went to the big top to prepare the show with his partners.

At twelve o'clock, he had a rest. Then, he went to town by bike and he bought some vegetables and meat. At about two o'clock in the afternoon, he had lunch at his caravan with his friend Bert. They had ham, rice and peas.

At five o'clock he went to the big top again to get ready for the show. The show started at half six and finished at eight o'clock. Then, he went to the town cinema and he watched a comedy film. He went to bed at quarter to eleven.
