V. Reading the following passage and complete the questions.

Grandma's house

Hi! My name's Vicki and I live in London. I like going to my grandma's. I call her Granny. She lives in the countryside in the north-east of England in a small village. Her house is old and small. It is near the sea.

In grandma's house there are five rooms. The living room is small and nice. There's a sofa, two armchairs, a small table and a fireplace. (I love it in winter!) Granny has got a cat and in the living room there's a basket for her. My grandma can play the piano and you can see her old piano in the living room, too. There are lots of pictures and photos on the wall.

She has got a big kitchen next to the living room. Granny loves cooking so she has a lot of things in the kitchen: cooker, fridge, cupboards etc.

In her bedroom there is a wardrobe by the wall. She's got a big bed and next to it there's another one for me. My bed is quite small. On grandma's bedside table you can see a lamp and there's always a book because Granny reads a lot.

The bathroom is next to the bedroom. Granny hasn't got a shower; she has a huge bathtub.

In the house there is a small hall with a big mirror.

As you can see, my grandma's house isn't big but it is very friendly and comfortable.
