

Instruction:

Based on the table, the students need to match the animal with the right answer.

	Speed (km/h)	Length (m)	Height (m)	Weight (kg)	Rare
African Bush Elephant	40	7.3	3.2	6000	415,000
Indian rhinoceros	55	3.7 - 3.8	1.6 - 1.9	2200	2,600
Cheetah	80- 130	1.1 - 1.5	0.67- 0.94	21-72	7,100
Giraffe	60	4.2	4.6 - 6.1	550- 1200	68,000

The rarest

The fastest

The slowest

The most common

The biggest

The tallest

Instruction:

Then, fill in the blanks with the correct superlative adjective and information from the table.

	Speed (km/h)	Length (m)	Height (m)	Weight (kg)	Rare
African Bush Elephant	40	7.3	3.2	6000	415,000
Indian rhinoceros	55	3.7 - 3.8	1.6 - 1.9	2200	2,600
Cheetah	80- 130	1.1 - 1.5	0.67- 0.94	21-72	7,100
Giraffe	60	4.2	4.6 - 6.1	550- 1200	68,000

Elephants are the _____ mammals on the earth. They can weigh up to _____ kilograms and run _____ per hour. However, elephants are the _____ among cheetahs, Indian Rhino and giraffes.

The Indian rhinoceros are also interesting animals. They have one horn and plates that act as natural body armor. They are also known as the _____ animals among them as there are only _____ left in the world.

Cheetahs are great animals. They are called the _____ on the land. They have flexible bodies and run _____ per hour. Their weights are only _____ and the _____ among the elephant, rhino, and giraffe.

Giraffes are the _____ animals on the land. They can grow up to _____. They used their long necks to eat leaves from tall trees. They also have long legs and are able to run _____ per hour.