SHAH ALAM, 14 February : Residents of Taman Maju Jaya gathered early this morning for a good cause. They are part of the three-month 'Go Green' campaign, launched here yesterday which was fully sponsored by Maju Holdings. The campaign started off with a gotong-royong by the residents. Datuk Wong Ming Chan, CEO of Maju Holdings was present at the 7.00 a.m. event. He was part of the team to help clean up the area.

Before the gotong-royong started, the residents joined in an 'Aerobic Start-Up' morning exercise first. The twenty-minute aerobics exercise was led by a group of instructors from the Saujana Fitness gym. The crowd enjoyed a hearty breakfast, sponsored by the Residents Committee. They were given a briefing on the clean-up plan and were provided with the necessary cleaning tools. The gotong-royong went on successfully and ended around 11 a.m.

Drinks and snacks were provided by the campaign committee. MBSA lorries were seen at the site to help cart away rubbish and garden waste. Bins were provided to be used by the residents who wanted to dispose of their newspaper stacks or recycle other things. Many people were seen coming in cars to drop off their newspapers and used items at these bins.
