

For each question, choose the correct answer.

THE TAJ MAHAL

What's the most beautiful building you've ever visited? Many people (1) that the Taj Mahal, built in India in the 17th century, is one of the most magnificent buildings they've ever seen. For example, its walls are made of white marble, which almost seems to change colour depending on the (2) of light shining on it. What's more, in some of the gardens that (3) the building, there are wonderful fountains and pools of water.

Nowadays, the Taj Mahal (4) up to 8 million visitors every year, coming from all over the world. However, increasing (5) of pollution in the environment, from vehicles in the area, are becoming a serious (6) for the building, so people are no longer permitted to drive close to it. Visitors must either walk from the parking areas or catch a special bus.

- | | | | |
|----------------|-----------|------------|------------|
| 1 A advise | B decide | C suppose | D agree |
| 2 A amount | B total | C sum | D whole |
| 3 A support | B consist | C involve | D surround |
| 4 A introduces | B finds | C attracts | D produces |
| 5 A heights | B types | C levels | D loads |
| 6 A trouble | B issue | C doubt | D event |