

Our topic: unseen passage

Once upon a time there was a planet named earth
And on the earth there was a country named india and
A country named china . china was rood and india was polite
In year 2020 china released a disease named covid -19/corona
And everyone has to where mask and wash there hands
And everyone has do that and the corona ran away from India.

Q/A

What was the planet name?

What was the country name?

What was the disease name?