Rachel's birthday

- Jamie: Well, Rachel, happy birthday!
- Martin: Yeah, happy birthday, Rachel!
- Rachel: Oh, flowers! (1)! Thanks. I'll just go and put them in some water.
- Jamie: So, what would you like to do tonight, then?
- Rachel: To be honest, I haven't really decided yet. I've been so busy all day I haven't really thought about it. What do you (2)
- Jamie: (3) It's up to you, really. It is your birthday, after all.
- Rachel: I know, but I hate (4) decisions.
- Jamie: How about going to see that musical which is on at the Kings?
- Rachel: We could do, I suppose.
- Jamie: Oh, no, that's (5) awful. A friend of mine went and she left halfway through.
- Martin: Oh, right. OK, well, how about Ben's café? They do jazz on a Wednesday.
- Rachel: Yeah, we could do (6) if you want.
- Jamie: Oh, Ben's! Please, no! The food in that place is so expensive, and you only get tiny little portions. Anyway, I hate jazz. I'd rather go (7), if we can.
- Martin: Yeah, well, it's not your birthday! Anyway, I thought you said you weren't bothered what we did.
- Rachel: No, it's all right if Jamie would prefer to do something else. Listen, I've had an idea, (8) bowling? There's that bowling place in Moortown.
- Jamie: Oh, yeah! I know the one. I've been there before. It's really good.
- Martin: Yeah, sounds fine.
- Rachel: OK, great. Let's do that, then.
- Jamie: What time do you want to go, then? Seven? Seven thirty?
- Rachel: (9) eight? I want to have a bath, get changed and just chill out for a bit first.
- Jamie: Yeah, sure.
- Martin: Whatever. I'm easy. Listen, though, I told Stella and Mike we might be doing something later.
- Rachel: Oh, right, great. Do you want to (10) and tell them what we're doing?
- Martin: Yeah. Where shall I tell them to meet us?
- Rachel: You know where it is, (11)
- Martin: Yeah, I think so. It's just near the station, isn't it? On Otley Road.
- Rachel: Yeah, that's it. Well, we'll meet them there – just inside the entrance, in the foyer.
- Martin: OK. By the way, do you think we'll have to book the lanes?
- Rachel: I don't know. I've never (12) been there. Do you know, Jamie?
- Jamie: I think we should be OK. It's the (13) I doubt it'll be that busy.
