3 Rules Around the World

Every country has rules. These rules are called laws. Many laws keep us safe. However, some laws are a bit strange.

The Eiffel Tower is a famous tower in Paris. Many people visit it every year. Do you want to take a photo? You must be careful. You must not take photos of it at night. However, you may take photos during the day.

Do you want some chewing gum? Not in Singapore. People must not sell gum in Singapore. The government wants to keep the streets clean. You may eat gum in Singapore.

You just must not sell it or bring it into the country.

Ice cream is popular with visitors to Italy. Pizza is also popular. However, you must not eat either of them in some areas in Rome. You must not have any food or drinks near some of the famous places in Rome. But don't worry if you are thirsty. You may drink water from many of the water fountains in the city.

4 Working Animals

Many people have animals as pets. But did you know that some animals have jobs, too? Guide dogs help people who are blind or who can't see well. They can help people move around obstacles. They can help their owner cross the road and warn them of other dangers. Most guide dogs work for five or six years. Labradors and retrievers are good guide dogs. This is because they are more clever than other types of dogs. Falcons are big, beautiful birds. They can fly high and fast. They can also see very well. Some people use falcons to scare away other birds. For example, in Dubai, you see a lot of pigeons sitting on high buildings. They make a mess and cause other problems. Falcons are bigger than pigeons. When falcons fly around the buildings, they scare the pigeons away. Many years ago, people used horses to pull carriages. This was before cars were popular. Some horses still pull carriages, but this is mainly for tourists. Today, horses do other jobs. Some police officers ride horses. These horses are big and tall. They can help the police to control crowds of people.

5 Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is celebrated in the USA on the 4th Thursday of November. The tradition comes from the first people to arrive from England to North America. The Native Americans taught them to grow food and hunt, and the pilgrims invited the Native Americans for a dinner after the harvest. This was the first Thanksgiving in common folklore. Nowadays, Thanksgiving is the country's largest secular holiday and represents a time when friends and family get together for a large turkey dinner. Traditionally people make stuffing, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes, and pumpkin pie to go with the huge roast turkey.
In the morning, there is a massive parade in NYC called the Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade, which has a lot of giant balloons, famous people, and marching bands. In the afternoon, people watch American football games. There is usually one game in the afternoon and one in the evening.
Thanksgiving also marks the unofficial beginning of the Holiday season in America. The Friday after Thanksgiving, which is the following day, is black Friday and has a lot of crazy sales. Also, it is traditional to start putting up Christmas decorations after Thanksgiving if your family celebrates Christmas.

6My neighborhood

My neighborhood is very peaceful and quiet. It is a new neighborhood, and there are a lot of big houses and some apartment buildings. The streets are very clean, and there aren't many cars. My school is near my house. I can walk there in 10 minutes.

There's also a park, which has a small playground for children and a large field. I like to play baseball there with my friends after school. All of the houses have a small front yard but big back yards. Most of my neighbors have a swimming pool, and some even have a trampoline! Everyone has a flower garden, and in the spring, it is very beautiful. My road is called Maple Road. It is not in the city. It's in the suburbs. There aren't any restaurants, bars or cinemas on my road. But, if you go to Main street, you can find a lot of things to do. My favorite store is there. It's called Knick-Knack, and they sell everything you can imagine. I like my neighborhood because it is very safe. There is no crime, and all of my neighbors take care of each other. The police station is next to the school, which is very nice. However, the hospital is quite far. It is in the city, and we have to drive 30 minutes to get there.

My friends live near me, and we often meet up to play or just talk. We love playing hockey in the street because there isn't any traffic. I think I am lucky to live in my neighborhood.
