Reading comprehension

Read the next text and mar with an x the option with the fact that is True.

Joseph never opens the front door. When someone knocks on the front door, Joseph says, "Who is it?" But he does not open the door. He isn´t scare but his parents told him to keep the door closed. His parents want him to be safe. He will be safe if he doesn't open the door. Yesterday someone knocked on the front door. "Who is it?" Joseph asked. "It's the mailman," the person said. "I cannot open the door," Joseph said. "Okay, I will come back tomorrow," the mailman said. "Goodbye," Joseph said. Joseph is a good boy. He listens to his parents. He doesn't open the door for any person.

1. Mark with an X the sentence with the fact that is True.

( ) Joseph always opens the front door.

( ) Joseph never opens the door.

( ) Joseph sometimes opens the door.

2. Mark with an X the sentence with the fact that is True.

( ) Yesterday someone knocked on the front door.

( ) Today someone knocked on the front door.

( ) Yesterday Joseph knocked on the front door.

3. Mark with an X the sentence with the fact that is True.

( ) Joseph is scare when someone knocks.

( ) Joseph is sometimes scare when someone knocks.

( ) Joseph isn´t scare when someone knocks.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Mark with an X the sentence with the fact that is True.

( ) His dad knocked on the front door.

( ) The mailman knocked on the front door.

( ) his friend knocked on the front door.

5. Mark with an X the sentence with the fact that is True.

( ) He listens to his parents.

( ) he sometimes listens to his parents.

( ) He doesn't listen to his parents.

6. Mark with an X the sentence with the fact that is True.

( ) He won´t be safe if he doesn´t open the door.

( ) He will be safe if he opens the door.

( ) He will be safe if he doesn't open the door.

LIVEWORKSHEETS