	The British lockdown is said to be similar to the lockdown in France.
	All British people must absolutely stay at home.
	In the UK, people are allowed to exercise outside twice a day.
	British people are not allowed to meet up with people even if they live with them.
	The British can help someone in need for example to deliver food.
	The safe distance recommended is 1 meter.
