

Listen to the song and fill out the gaps

Where have all the flowers gone, long passing?

Where have all the flowers gone, long time?

Where have all the flowers gone?

Young girls have them everyone.

Oh, when will they ever learn? Oh, when will they ever learn?

Where have all the young girls gone, longpassing?

Where have all the young girls gone, long time?

Where have all the young girls gone?

Gone for everyone.

Where have all the husbands gone, longpassing?

Where have all the husbands gone, long time?

Where have all the husbands gone?

Gone foreveryone

Where have all the soldiers gone, long passing?

Where have all the soldiers gone, long time.....?

Where have all the soldiers gone?

Gone to graveyards,

Oh, when will they ever learn? Oh, when will they ever learn?

Where have all the graveyards gone, long passing?

Where have all the graveyards gone, long time?

Where have all the graveyards gone?

Gone to, everyone.
