

Consider whether these statements are true or false.

- |   |                                     |                                      |
|---|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1- Slaves in the Roman Empire always worked as part of the household.                   | <input type="button" value="true"/> | <input type="button" value="false"/> |
| 2- As punishment for their crimes, some people would become slaves in the Roman Empire. | <input type="button" value="true"/> | <input type="button" value="false"/> |
| 3- The children of slaves were born free in the Empire.                                 | <input type="button" value="true"/> | <input type="button" value="false"/> |
| 4- Slaves were fairly treated by the Romans and cruelty was forbidden.                  | <input type="button" value="true"/> | <input type="button" value="false"/> |
| 5- Roman Emperors did not have slaves.  | <input type="button" value="true"/> | <input type="button" value="false"/> |
| 6- Slavery was culturally justified by the Romans.                                      | <input type="button" value="true"/> | <input type="button" value="false"/> |
| 7- Many slaves had office jobs or were actors.  | <input type="button" value="true"/> | <input type="button" value="false"/> |
| 8- Gladiators were actors who performed plays and games.                                | <input type="button" value="true"/> | <input type="button" value="false"/> |