

What are earthquakes and volcanoes?

A Cross Section of a Volcano

twinkl

twinkl.co.uk

Main Vent.

Lava.

Magma.

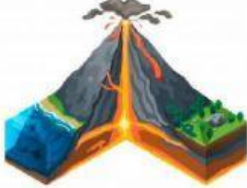

Crater.

Ashes.

Layer of lava and ashes.

What are earthquakes and volcanoes?

Answer the questions in your science notebook. You can also print the practice and paste in the science notebook.

|                                                                                                             |                                                                                                             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Earthquakes  | Volcanoes  |
| What is an earthquake?                                                                               | What is a volcano?                                                                                   |
| How does an earthquake change the surface of the earth?                                              | How does a volcano change the surface of the earth?                                                  |