

9,999,999 Tears --- Razzy Bailey

 I got 9,999,999 tears to go

And then, I don't know if I'll be over you

The sun didn't shine this _____

It's been raining the whole day through _____ without warning, you found somebody new

That's when the first _____ came falling from my eyes

I'm beginning to feel the _____, seeing nothing but _____ skies

lifetime	morning
place	cloudy
pain	suddenly tear

You're out tonight with your new love

I'm far, far from your mind,

Trying to get over you, Love

Could take a whole _____

I can't believe you could want anybody else

Thought no one could take my _____

At least that's what I keep telling myself

As the tears fall down my face
